I support most of RM-10811. The idea of keeping morse code as a part of the Amateur Radio testing is a good one. I think the retest limits are unncessary since that's up to the individual various VE groups.